Do Justice, Love Mercy, Walk Humbly – Week 5
April 7, 2019

Micah 6:8
He has shown you, O mortal, what is good. And what does the Lord require of you? To act justly and to love mercy and to walk humbly with your God.

When you think about the question, “What does the Lord require of me?” what comes to mind?

Why do you think God lays out justice, mercy, and humility together for His people when He describes lives of true and pleasing worship? Which of these three is most evident in your life right now? Which is least evident?

Share a time when you have experienced mercy in your life?

What is hard about mercy and justice going together?

What do you think God is after when he calls us to “love mercy”?

Is there anything different about the way you will think/feel/live as a result of this series?
