Jesus & The Ten Commandments
Week 8: You Shall Not Steal

1. Where does theft intersect with your life? Recall the first or the most impactful time you were stolen from.
2. How does a "culture of theft" impact your relationship with a place or a community? Think about businesses, cities, institutions, etc.
3. Dream for a moment: what would a culture free from theft and exploitation look like? How would your life be different?
4. Jesus shifts us from "not stealing" to living free from finding value and security in money. Practically, how do you store up treasures in heaven rather than on earth?
5. Where do you feel pressure to conform to economic patterns that are not Kingdom-oriented? How can you live creatively counter-cultural in a culture of theft and exploitation?
