S – Sacrificial Living

1. What was one of the things that stood out to you about today's message?
2. What part of the acronym MOSES are you implementing in your life right now?
3. What part of the acronym would you like to implement in your life, and how can you start the implementation process?
4. Share a time in your life when somebody mentored you. Describe what that experience was like and what lessons you learned from that relationship you've carried into your life today.
5. What generation are you a part of, and what do you think the Church can do to relate to your generation?

Generation Names:

- The Greatest Generation – born 1901-1927
- The Silent Generation – born 1928-1945
- The Baby Boomer Generation – born 1946-1964
- Generation X – born 1965-1980
- Millennials – born 1981-1996
- Generation Z – born 1997-2010

- Gen Alpha – born 2011 – 2025
- 6. We know we may not see or partake in the fruits of our labor and leadership on this side of heaven. Take a moment to reflect on the scriptures from Deuteronomy 31:1-3 and Hebrews 11:24-28. How might God ask you to live sacrificially to leave a lasting inheritance and raise the next generation?

Lent Discussion Questions Holy Week

"...the cross is not just something to discuss, interpret, and understand. It is a thing to behold. We must see the act of love set before us again and again. The crucifixion story bears repeating."

- Esau McCaulley

1. Holy Week (Palm Sunday through Easter Sunday) reflects Jesus' final week: Triumphal Entry through Resurrection). How will you incorporate this theme into your week, prayer life, and your time with community?
2. The challenge with church seasons is that they can become ritualistic and lack meaning. How can you seek meaning this Easter Season?
3. Invitation: Pastor Ashley talked about the launch of our prayer room during her message. The prayer room in the church is open during office hours (Monday-Thursday, 9 AM-5 PM). Within are the Stations of the Cross, a guided prayer journey through Jesus' death on the cross. Can your small group find time to pray together in that space for an hour?
 1. If those hours don't work, please email Pastor Jeremiah (jnealon@cmbc.org) to schedule another time.
